Pastor Keith L. DeVries Writes:
“Coming Attractions”

Working behind the scenes for the past several years, Tim Farley has been chairing a Parking Lot Task Force. This group has been gathering information, entering into working relationships with contractors, and preparing plans to introduce you, the members and friends of CPC, to a wonderful opportunity to be a part of turning a new parking lot from dream to reality. If you’ve been in the back parking lot at all over the past few years, you know that it is in desperate need of major renovation and rebuilding.

The main goal of this task force is to finally complete one more component of our very first capital campaign in 1997: a new parking lot. Certain elements of capital building projects often get put on the back burner due to other building priorities or lack of funding – both have happened with the parking lot. Now, according to the Parking Lot Task Force, it is time to “seize the day” and launch a capital campaign to raise funds for a parking lot that is in keeping with our mission statement to “Welcome all,” our core values as a Matthew 25 church, and our status as an Earth Care Congregation. The parking lot plans include a solar canopy, an ADA compliant ramp from the upper parking area to the back of the church campus, lighting, new landscaping, and more accessible parking spaces.

Watch for “coming attractions” this summer and fall, starting with a Parking Lot Preview following worship on July 21. Congregational meetings, presentations, Q & A sessions, information about funding sources and building loans, and the launch of a capital fundraising campaign will follow.

In addition to the upcoming parking lot project, I am excited to tell you about another “coming attraction” at the end of July that will surely lift your spirits. This past week, I received an email from Hannah Ludwig, mezzo-soprano, gifted musician, and child of CPC who is now a professional opera singer. Hannah expressed her gratitude for this congregation surrounding her and her family with love and care after the passing of her mother in February. She wants to give something back in the form of a concert to be held on Sunday, July 28. We will share details as they come available, but I wanted to make sure you put on your calendar the afternoon of July 28. As with everything Hannah does, it promises to be ter-

Blessings on all of your coming attractions,

torically thought about issues of sexual orientation and gender identity, and how we have changed and acted in recent years. We'll dig into the Bible and theology, and see ways we may need to dig deeper in how we think and speak about diverse identities. And we'll work together to identify particular acts of hospitality, creativity, and witness, where we can use words and deeds to strengthen our congregations and our common life for all people.

The day's event at CPC will be led by the Rev. Brian D. Ellison, Executive Director of Covenant Network of Presbyterians. Registration is just $10 per person and includes lunch. Check out the day's agenda on this page to see all of the great things we have planned.

Save the date! Invite your family, friends, and neighbors! You don't have to be Presbyterian to attend! We will also be inviting local churches and churches in our presbytery. Registration will start later in July. The CPC Inclusion Task Force is hosting this community event.

Kathy Lewis organized the volunteers and tasks for the day. What a team!!

For the graduation celebration, CPC provided tablecloths, flowers, centerpieces, and decorative napkins. and World Relief provided more decorations, pizza, and cake. The graduates provided lots and lots of wonderful Afghan food! It was a joyful celebration. One of the graduating ladies commented, "Everything is so beautiful. I feel like I am in a five-star restaurant with VIP service. I'm very surprised that they are doing all this for us. Seeing these senior volunteers, they are doing so much. In our culture, older women don't do all this." Kamila Khugyani, a World Relief caseworker, was happy to explain that it's our shared belief in God, who calls us to serve others.

Life Is Not Always Easy

by Misty Dunn, Stephen Minister/Leader

“Summertime, and the living is easy...” or so the words to an old song go. We all seem to look forward to the slower pace of summer, warm weather (well, we wish it were just warm and not HOT), long weekends, and maybe even a vacation.

These may be our expectations and hopes, yet our reality may be very different. Our life may actually seem anything but easy—we may be dealing with unexpected loss: divorce, the death of a loved one, job loss, or with health issues that make our life difficult. We may not even have any clearly defined difficulty or crisis, yet our life seems lacking. We’re going through the motions, yet we feel at a loss.

Whatever the reason for one’s feelings of loss or distress, seeking connection with Jesus and other believers can help. Blaise Pascal suggests, “There is a God-shaped vacuum in the heart of every person, and it can never be filled by any created thing. It can only be filled by God, made known through Jesus Christ.”

have four newly trained Stephen Ministers who are eager to offer their compassionate care. Remember, God wants us to accept help when we might need it as well as to give help to others!

Contact any of the Stephen Leaders for more information: John Wallace, Len Tozier, Mary Thomas, or Misty Dunn. If you would like to reach out for a Stephen Minister for yourself or for someone else, talk to a pastor or contact Len Tozier as the Care Referral Coordinator. The confidential CPC phone number for Stephen Ministry referrals is 916-486-0604.

In Matthew 18, Jesus promises to be with us, “Where two or three are gathered in my name I am among them. . .”

That’s one of the great miracles of Stephen Ministry, which our church offers to anyone going through a challenging time. When a Stephen Minister meets one-to-one with their care receiver, Jesus is present too. He brings the power of his transforming love, and the healing, peace, and comfort that only God can give. Whatever a care receiver says to their Stephen Minister is kept confidential. A Stephen Minister doesn’t try to

Church Campout 2024: A Memorable Adventure in Nature

by Lilly Janik

I have been going to family camp since I was 10 years old and 20 years later, it is still one of my favorite events at CPC! This year for the church camp-out, several families gathered at Sly Park Campground which has a beautiful lake, forest, and was covered in wildflowers. Some of us who attended were there for the whole weekend, and others joined the group on Saturday for a day of fun.

One of the highlights of the campout was the easy hike we took to a waterfall. As we traversed winding trails through the forest, we enjoyed each other's company and were treated at the end with the falls! Some of us jumped into the refreshing waters, while others waded, or just enjoyed the view from the shore. After our hike, we went to the lake, a short walk from our campsites, where the group went paddleboarding, swam in the cool waters, and played on the beach.

We spent the time between activities playing board games, sharing food, and enjoying nature, seeing butterflies, frogs, tadpoles, fish, and lots of bugs (read: a plethora of mosquitoes). As evening descended, we gathered around the campfire, united in song and s'mores. Our spirited rendition of "American Pie" ended with the arrival of a friendly park ranger who applauded our song choice but reminded us it was officially quiet time.

Campouts are a testament to the enduring power of community and the wonders found in God's creation. We, as a church family, bound together to make sure everyone was provided for and welcomed in the fun. The best part for me is always the laughter, adventure, and memories shared, which lead to stronger and deeper connections as a community of faith. I already can't wait for next year!

New Roof!

In early June, crews spent about one week replacing the roof over the classrooms on the west side of the CPC campus (including the youth Upper Rooms). They worked through some of the hottest days of the year so far to repair dry rot in the walkway overhang and replace the 40+(?) -year-old shingles.

Thanks to the roofing crew and to Ron Morris and Tim Farley for arranging for and overseeing this much needed repair.

Presbyterian Women 2024-2025 Bible Study: "Let Justice Roll Down"

by Terry Sakuda

CPC's Presbyterian Women will join other PW groups throughout the country in the 2024-2025 Horizons Bible study: Let Justice Roll Down: God's Call to care for Neighbors and All Creation by Patricia K. Tull. Pastor Keith DeVries will lead an introduction and Lesson 1 on Thursday, September 19 in McMillen Hall. Starting in October, lessons 2 through 9 will be led by one of our pastors on the second Thursday of each month through May of 2025. In the nine lessons of the Bible study, we will discuss the call to care for neighbors and God's creation with all our hearts, with particular care for society's least powerful members who are disproportionately impacted by unjust systems. We will learn that in God's first instructions to the nation of Israel we hear "you shall not pervert the justice due to the poor" (Exodus 23:6); in Moses' final speech at the promised land's border, he reiterated, "Justice, and only justice, you shall pursue" (Deuteronomy 16:20); and from Amos, the earliest recorded prophet, "Let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an overflowing stream" (Amos 5:24). Scripture reminds us that we are called to speak out to urge our society to act for just transitions in this fast-changing world.

If you are interested in the Bible study and would like to purchase the book please contact Terry Sakuda at terry.sakuda@yahoo.com. The price per book is expected to be $12. I will be ordering the books in July. All women and men as well are invited to enjoy this Bible Study.
