MEET OUR GUEST SPEAKERS

Dr. Joseph Serwadda

Dr. Serwadda hails from Kalungu District in Central Uganda, holding a Certificate in Journalism, Diploma in Legal Studies, Diploma in Christian Ministry, Diploma in Theology, Bachelor of Arts in Applied Humanities, Masters in Theology, Doctorate in Divinity and has been awarded two Honorary Doctorates - honoris causa (D.H.L & DMin). He founded the Victory Christian Centre Church, one of the mega-churches, home to 5,000 members in Kampala city, with over 470 branches that have been pioneered across Uganda and elsewhere. He has written numerous inspirational books and selected articles for local newspapers.

As a forward thinker and astute planner, he has used his training in Journalism to establish a Media House. He leads the largest network of Christian churches, the Born Again Faith in Uganda and is also Co-Chair of the Council of Presidents of the Inter-Religious Council of Uganda.

He is married to Freda with whom they have grown up children and grand children.

Joram Calimutan

An ordained minister of the United Church of Christ in the Philippines (UCCP), Rev. Joram Calimutan was a local pastor for 12 years in the Southern Tagalog region of the Philippines before being assigned as ecumenical co-worker to the Asia Pacific Mission for Migrants (APMM) in Hong Kong. He now serves as head of the Institutional Administration and Finance unit of APMM.

Rev. Joram Calimutan is also the lead convenor of the Asia Pacific Interfaith Network for the Rights of Migrants (AP INFORM), a network of various faith communities supporting the rights of migrants, refugees and other displaced people. Additionally, he pastors a worshipping congregation of UCCP in Hong Kong. He holds a Master of Divinity from Union Theological Seminary (Cavite, Philippines) and was awarded the Contemporary Theology Award.

Born in Lucban, Quezon, Philippines, he is married to Edwina Antonio, Executive Director of Bethune House (Hong Kong), a refuge for migrant women.
